

Press Release

22 May 2019

West African Resources files NI 43-101 Technical Report: Sanbrado Gold Project, Burkina Faso

Perth, Western Australia: Gold developer West African Resources Limited (ASX: WAF) is pleased to advise that it has today filed a National Instrument 43-101 (NI 43-101) Technical Report (Technical Report) titled "Open Pit and Underground Feasibility Study Update, Sanbrado Gold Project, Burkina Faso" (the "Report"), with an effective date of 25 March 2019. The feasibility study was announced on 15 April 2019.

The independently authored Technical Report was prepared in accordance with the requirements NI 43-101 and complies with the 2012 JORC Code. The Report can be found on the West African Resources website (www.westafricanresources.com) and under our profile on the SEDAR website (www.sedar.com).

For further information contact:

Nathan Ryan
NWR Communications
Ph: +61 420 582 887
Email: nathan.ryan@nwrcommunications.com.au

Richard Hyde
West African Resources
Ph: +61 8 94817344
Email: info@westafricanresources.com