

Sanbrado shines

West African Resources' updated feasibility study on its Sanbrado gold mine in Burkina Faso has confirmed projected production of 211,000 ounces a year at an all-in sustaining cost of $US551 an ounce over the first five years. The miner forecasts a 16 month payback on $US185 million pre-production capital costs.